

ICOHTEC Prize for Young Scholars 2011

The ICOHTEC-Prize is sponsored by the Juanelo Turriano Foundation and consists of 3,000 Euro. ICOHTEC, the International Committee for the History of Technology, is interested in the history of technology focusing on technological development as well as its relationship to science, society, economy, culture and the environment. The history of technology covers all periods of human history and all populated areas. There is no limitation as to theoretical or methodological approaches.

Eligible to the prize are original works in any of the official ICOHTEC languages (English, French, German, Russian or Spanish) in the history of technology (published or unpublished Ph.D. theses or other monographs — no articles or edited anthologies) written by scholars who, when applying for the prize, are not older than 37 years.

For the ICOHTEC Prize 2011, please send a copy of the work you wish to be considered for the prize plus a 4500-word English summary of that work to each of the three Prize Committee members. Your submissions must be postmarked not later than 24 January 2011.

If the work is a PhD thesis, it should have been accepted by your university in 2009 or 2010; if it is a published work, the year of publication should be 2009 or 2010. The submission should be accompanied by a CV (indicating also the date of birth) and, if applicable, a list of publications. Applicants are free to add references or reviews on the work submitted.

Send a complete application by regular mail services (not electronically) to each of the following Prize Committee members:

ICOHTEC, founded in Paris in 1968, is a Scientific Section within the Division of the History of Science and Technology of the International Union of the History and Philosophy of Science and Technology (IUHPST/DHST). It is a leading international organisation in the history of technology and has its membership base mainly in Europe, but also in the Americas, East Asia, India and Australia.

Research activities, in which ICOHTEC members co-operate, are on a comparative national basis, stressing aspects of co-operation between various nations, regions or institutions.

ICOHTEC holds annual symposia, sites of which are spread round the world. Next year's meeting "Consumer Choice and Technology" will take place in Glasgow, UK from 2 to 7 August 2011.

ICON is the ICOHTEC's journal and contains scholarly articles and reviews. Other issues of interest to members are reported in the Newsletter, which also provides country reports on the history of technology and bibliographical surveys. Further information is available at ICOHTEC's homepage: <http://www.icohtec.org/>.

Should you wish to join ICOHTEC, please, visit our website, fill in the membership form and return it to an address mentioned at: <http://icohtec.org/about-us-join.htm>

For more information, please, contact Timo Myllyntaus, ICOHTEC Secretary General at timmyl@utu.fi.
